

Dougherty County, GA Achieves $3 Million in Online Surplus Sale Proceeds on GovDeals Auction Platform

May 20, 2026

Milestone achieved through 781 successful virtual auctions

ALBANY, Ga., May 20, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Dougherty County, Georgia has reached the milestone of over $3 million in surplus auction proceeds conducted on GovDeals, the leading online auction marketplace for government agencies, educational institutions, and related organizations to sell surplus assets. The county's achievement is the result of 781 successful virtual auctions completed on the GovDeals platform.

"Reallocating and selling surplus property is an important responsibility, and GovDeals has helped us do it in a way that's efficient, transparent, and accessible to a much broader pool of bidders," said Dougherty County, GA Procurement Specialist Darlene Hollis. "Reaching $3 million in proceeds reflects the consistency of our process and our team's focus on making sure each auction is positioned to deliver the best possible outcome for the county."

Dougherty County has used GovDeals to auction a wide variety of surplus assets, helping ensure unused items can be repurposed by buyers while generating meaningful returns that support county operations. Since beginning its online auction efforts in 2006, the county has completed 781 successful virtual auctions, contributing to the more than $3 million in total proceeds generated through the GovDeals marketplace.

"Milestones like this are the product of disciplined, ongoing effort—listing consistently, presenting assets well, and taking advantage of a platform built to maximize buyer reach," said Nick Carr, GovDeals Vice President of Revenue. "Dougherty County's success shows what's possible when a public-sector team fully commits to a transparent online auction process. We're proud to support their work and look forward to continuing the partnership."

In the last 12 months alone, Dougherty County has achieved over $84,000 in surplus auction proceeds on GovDeals. New auctions can be found regularly through the county's GovDeals storefront.
